

Automatic Collision Welding and Riveting Machine

Zhiheng as a professional high quality Automatic Collision Welding and Riveting Machine manufacturer, you can rest assured to buy Automatic Collision Welding and Riveting Machine from our factory and we will offer you the best after-sale service and timely delivery. Zhiheng specializing in customized non-standard automation equipment, there are automatic assembly machine, automatic screw machine, automatic riveting machine, etc., Automatic collision welding riveting machine for temperature control switch is specially developed and manufactured for the factory of temperature controller. Thermostat manufacturers are welcome to come to consult.

Introduction of Automatic collision welding riveting machine for temperature control switch

China Automatic Collision Welding and Riveting Machine Factory Directly Supply. Zhiheng is a large-scale Automatic Collision Welding and Riveting Machine manufacturer and supplier in China. The Automatic collision welding riveting machine for temperature control switch OF ZHIHENG AUTOMATION provides CONVENIENCE for temperature control manufacturers. and it improves efficiency and quality for temperature control manufacturers. Automatic collision welding riveting machine for temperature control switch can be automatic dispensing, automatic welding, riveting, automatic detection and distinguish between good and bad products. The output is about 1800pcs per hour.
